12:15 - 14:00 Registration at Buisson

14:00 - 14:20 Welcoming remarks
Conference room at Buisson
Professor T.J. CHEUNG, College of William and Mary, United States
OFFSHORE DEMOCRACIES - AN IDEATIONAL CHALLENGE TO CHINA

14:20 - 15:00 Keynote speech
Conference room at Buisson
Professor T.J. CHEUNG, College of William and Mary, United States
TOWARDS A COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE ON IRISH & TAIWAN STUDIES

15:20 - 16:45 Conference at Buisson

16:45 - 17:00 Coffee break

18:15 General Assembly
Conference room at Buisson

20:30 Dinner offered by the Taipei Representative Office, La Scène, Hôtel de la Cité, Concorde Lyon (Cité Internationale, Bus C1, C4 and C5, last stop)

Friday May 3rd, 2013

9:00 - 10:00 Keynote speech
Conference room at Buisson
Professor E. ZEITOUN, Research Fellow and Deputy Director, Institute of Linguistics, Academia Sinica, Taiwan
LANGUAGE CONTACT AND LANGUAGE CHANGE AMONG THE FORMOSAN LANG UAGES - AN EXAMPLE WITH SAISIYAT

10:10 - 11:30 Indigenous and Literature
Conference room at Buisson

11:30 - 12:40 NEW PERSPECTIVES ON TAIWAN'S INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS
Conference room at Buisson

12:40 - 14:00 Lunch on site

14:00 - 15:00 Keynote speech
Conference room at Buisson
Professor HsuAI A-Chin, Research fellow and Deputy Director, Institute of Sociology, Academia Sinica, Taiwan
TAIWAN: A TALE OF THE 70'S - THE GENERATIONAL ORIGIN OF CONTEMPORARY TAIWANESE POLITICS AND CULTURE

15:00 - 16:30 CRAFTING NEW POLITICAL SPACES AND VISIONS
Conference room at Buisson

16:30 - 17:45 Conference at Buisson

17:00 - 18:15 Cross Strait Political Since the 2012 Elections
Conference room at Buisson

18:00 - 20:30 Informal Dinner
DAY # 3
Saturday May 4th, 2013

Classroom F101 at Descartes

9:00 - 10:30
DOMESTIC POLITICS
A NEIGHBOURING CONTEXT

Thomas B. SÖLL Professor, UC Berkeley, United States The field of power in martial law Taiwan and South Korea

Dafydd FELL Reader, SOAS, England Third Congress European Studies Taiwan: The fall and mini revival

Thomas B. GOLD Professor, UC Berkeley, United States Taiwan’s complexity in the world

Simona CRAIOV Research Assistant, University of Florence, Italy Switzerland Perception of risk towards nuclear in Taiwan and Hong Kong

Alice DESNOS PhD student, University of Provence, France The role of industrial heritage in identity power: the nationalisation of sugar mills in Taiwan

10:30 - 11:15
HISTORICAL GEOPOLITICS OF TAIWAN

KINOSHITA Naoko Professor, Kumamoto University, Japan The construction of Taiwan as a geopolitical object in the early 19th century initiated by western colonialism

Tang Qian PhD student, Ruhr-Universität Bochum, Germany Geopolitics: The perspective of cross-strait relations under the one-China principle at turn of the millennium

Sou Arakawa Assistant Professor, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, United States Convergence through low, SOAS, England Normalising the cross-strait relations: Taiwan’s perception of China as a cross-strait superpower

11:15 - 12:00
ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES TOURISM

Simon CHEN I-Hsin Researcher, Institute of Taiwan History, Academia Sinica, Taiwan Taiwan’s special treatment? The negotiation of Chinese preferential policies and the drive for globalization

Charles CHEN J-Hui, Researcher, SOAS, England Occupying from the China Sea? The properties of cross-strait relations under normalising economic interdependence

Tang Qian PhD student, Ruhr-Universität Bochum, Germany Geopolitics: Eastern Asia through negotiations? Normalising the cross-strait economic relationship in the post-WTO era

12:00 - 13:00
TAIWAN HISTORY

Lin Rui Researcher, Institute of Taiwan History, Academia Sinica, Taiwan: Taiwan Economic, Cultural, and Intellectual History

Bojan ZEMANEK Assistant professor, Jagiellonian University, Poland Taiwan’s indus-

Myung CHEE Young Scholar Award Annoucement and Closing Session Classroom F101 at Descartes

Informal Lunch

15:30 - 19:00 Boat tour and visit of the old city