

UrbaChina Newsletter

UrbaChina, a FP7 programme coordinated by CNRS-EHESS

2013-32 (August)

Urban China

edited by Monique Abud

Ren-Urban China

A book by Ren Xuefei (Michigan State University). It examines “the past trajectories, present conditions, and future prospects of Chinese urbanization, by investigating five key themes - governance, migration, landscape, inequality, and cultural economy.”

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/5866>

Internal migration and urban dynamics in Shanghai

Edited by Monique Abud

A book by Zhao Yeqin, about the urban renewal of Shanghai, as well as relations between urban residents and migrants, observed through the example of a poor neighbourhood.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/5893>

Holy trees

written by Miguel Elosua

With temperatures reaching 40 degrees and a relative humidity of 80%, walking the streets of Shanghai during the summer is an arduous venture. It can be a completely different experience if you are in Puxi or in Pudong, however.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/6259>

UrbaChina Newsletter

Chinese perspectives on the environment and sustainable development

edited by Jacqueline Nivard

In this collection of articles from some of China's most distinguished political scientist, economist, and environmentalist, we find the emerging debate on environmentalism unfolding as Chinese try to find their own way.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/6177>

How does residential location motivate daily-life travel behavior?

edited by Jacqueline Nivard

Several studies of relationships between urban land use and travel have shown correlations between daily-life travel behavior and the location of the dwelling.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/6169>

Annual report on urban development of China No.6

edited by Chi-Han Ai

The Social Sciences Academic Press (China) released last week the 2013 edition of the Annual report on urban development of China No.6 (城市蓝皮书 No.6), the report edited by Pan Jiahua 潘家华, Wei Houkai 魏后凯.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/6246>

China's ghost cities video in Australian media

edited by Sebastien Goulard

NINEMSN, 60 minutes, June 28, 2013, video on China's ghost cities

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/6231>

UrbaChina Newsletter

Funded under the European Commission's Seventh Framework Programme, UrbaChina is a collaborative project managed by a consortium of 11 leading Chinese and European research institutions. UrbaChina analyses China's urbanisation trends for the next 40 years and define possible future scenarios with reference to concepts of sustainability.

Members:

- CNRS
- East China Normal University
- Development Research Centre
- University of Birmingham
- Chinese Academy of Social Sciences
- LSE
- Chinese Academy of Sciences
- ISIS
- University of Lisbon
- People's University
- Anhui academy of Environmental Science Research