

UrbaChina Newsletter

UrbaChina, a FP7 programme coordinated by CNRS-EHESS

2014-10 (March)

Mapping the use of Vélo'v

edited by Aurélia Martin

Article on the use of maps as a methodology for analysing digital data, using the Vélo'v system in Lyon, France

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/8973>

Water situation in China – Crisis or business as usual?

edited by Jacqueline Nivard

Master Thesis by Elaine Leong, 2013.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/8969>

Hobo

written by Miguel Elosua

A homeless person resting in a building waiting to be demolished around Tongyuanju (铜元局).

Photo taken during a field trip to Chongqing in November 2013.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/8961>

Land politics and local State capacities

edited by Monique Abud

Article by Meg Rithmire (Harvard Business School). The author 'uses a paired comparison of Dalian and Harbin in China's north-east to link differences in local political economies to land politics'.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/8936>

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/>
urbachina-edition@services.cnrs.fr

 UrbaChina
 @UrbaChina

UrbaChina Newsletter

Book proposals: Regions and Cities Book Series
edited by Monique Abud

The Regions and Cities Book Series is published by Routledge in association with the Regional Studies Association and welcomes book proposals for new books in the series.
<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/8944>

Shanghai to modify residential rental management regulations
written by Chi-Han Ai

Shanghai city government is currently trying to amend its residential rental management regulation.
<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/8933>

Chinese high-speed trains in Europe
written by Sebastien Goulard

China will help for the construction of a high-speed railway in Central Europe
<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/8927>

UrbaChina Newsletter

Funded under the European Commission's Seventh Framework Programme, UrbaChina is a collaborative project managed by a consortium of 11 leading Chinese and European research institutions. UrbaChina analyses China's urbanisation trends for the next 40 years and define possible future scenarios with reference to concepts of sustainability.

Members:

- CNRS
- East China Normal University
- Development Research Centre
- University of Birmingham
- Chinese Academy of Social Sciences
- LSE
- Chinese Academy of Sciences
- ISIS
- University of Lisbon
- People's University
- Anhui academy of Environmental Science Research