

Workshop: Medicalized Masculinities

Knowledge Exchange from Denmark to Turkey

October 20, 2020, 9AM - 11:20 AM, CEST
Orient-Institut Istanbul

The workshop is being organized by the Orient-Institut Istanbul as part of the project titled "A Cartography of Hair:y_less Masculinities. A Comparison between the Islamic Republic of Iran and the Republic of Turkey" and University of Southern Denmark as part of the project "Medicine Man: Media Assemblages of Medicalized Masculinity".

The workshop will bring together different researchers from Denmark and Turkey with the aim to explore possibilities and limits of cooperation around medicalized masculinities with its cultural, social and religious interconnections, to exchange knowledge and expertise by collecting theoretical and methodological inputs from different perspectives, and to enhance interdisciplinary collaboration.

Workshop Program

- 09:00 - 09:20 Introduction and welcome notes
Karen Hvidtfeldt and Melike Şahinol
- 09:20 - 09:40 Introduction to research projects
Karen Hvidtfeldt and Melike Şahinol
- 09:40 - 10:20 Roundtable with participants
Michael Nebeling Petersen, Kristian Møller, Mie Birk Jensen,
Signe Rom Rasmussen, and Burak Taşdizen
- 10:20 - 11:20 Closing discussion of research outlooks

